LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We are all generous, at least to some degree. Most of us when asked for something — whether it be our time, our talent, or our treasure — assess whether we can “afford” to fulfill the request and still preserve our own needs. Have we ever given the last bit of what we had knowing that we will have to do without so that someone else can benefit? We all tend to be a little covetous of our time, talent, and treasure. There are people throughout history who have given everything away only to find that they have received much more in return. St. Francis of Assisi is a prime witness. The Scriptures today bring us two widows who do the same. Do we see in people such as this, examples of foolishness or wisdom, inspiration, and hope?

In 1 Samuel, God advises the prophet Samuel not to observe as men see but as God sees. He tells him to “look to the heart.” This is the movement of this Sunday’s Gospel reading. “Beware the scribes,” Jesus advises. He points out their public greetings and “seats of honor,” which stands in sharp contrast to their private greed. For the Jewish people of Jesus’ day, honor resides at the top. Power and prestige created a high profile back then as it still does today. After his warning, Jesus turns his disciples’ attention elsewhere: a poor widow. “She, from her poverty, has contributed all she had.” While the scribes donated large sums to the temple, they did so “from their surplus wealth.” This woman — in her faith and devotion — offers “her whole livelihood.” Jesus invited his disciples to see with God’s eyes, to recognize a holy life in people the world overlooks. Here — in the poor, the vulnerable, the marginalized — God waits hidden. Today’s Gospel begs a few questions. What do we see? Whom do we value? Are we impressed by the pomp and circumstance of modern-day Pharisees? Do we ignore their self-righteousness because it looks impressive, even seems somewhat helpful? The point isn’t to judge the scribes, of course. God can see their hearts as well, and those assessments are firmly his responsibility. The point is to turn our eyes from the typically honored to the rarely respected. Are we disinterested in the poverty of the modern-day widows? Do we ignore their faith because we forget to look for it? This Sunday, consider the widows in your own life. Who can you see with God’s eyes?

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Todos somos algo de generosos. Para muchos, cuando uno le pide algo – de su tiempo, talento o tesoro – considera si “está a su alcance” hacer lo que otro le pide. A pesar de la solicitud de otros, muchos todavía mantienen sus propias necesidades. En algún momento, ¿usted ha dado lo poquito que le queda de su tiempo, talento o tesoro sabiendo que ya no habrá más para usted? Todos tendemos a ser medios codiciosos de nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro. Hay mucha gente a través de la historia que ha dado todo solo para encontrarse con muchos regalos. San Francisco de Asís es un testigo excelente a esto. Las escrituras de hoy nos demuestran a dos viudas que hacen lo mismo. ¿Usted ve a estas personas como ejemplos de tontería o de sabiduría?

XXXII Domingo Ordinario

11 de Noviembre de 2018

El punto de la enseñanza de hoy es muy adecuado para la sociedad moderna. En los tiempos antiguos, como ahora, la lucha de muchas personas estribaba en cómo prescindir del materialismo, de lo superfluo. Desear poco y ocupar poco es lucha y reto. El padre Pedro Arrupe, sacerdote Jesuita, expresaba lo innecesario de la siguiente forma: “Lo superfluo se torna conveniente, lo conveniente necesario, y lo necesario imprescindible.” Jesús, enseña a la gente a estar alerta de no ser hipócritas como los maestros de la Ley. Decía: “Cuidense de esos maestros de la Ley a quienes les gusta pasear con amplias vestiduras, ser saludados en las plazas y ocupar asientos reservados en las sinagogas y los banquetes” (Marcos 12:39-40). El problema, no estaba en el vestir bien y ser notables en la sociedad. Si no, en el maltrato que daban a las viudas. Eso era lo que Jesús condenaba severamente. Por lo tanto, Él les explica lo que había visto en el Templo, sobre la ofrenda de la viuda. “Yo les aseguro que esta viuda pobre ha dado más que todos los otros. Pues todos han echado de lo que les sobraba, mientras ella ha dado desde su pobreza; no tenía más, y dio todos sus recursos” (Marcos 12:43-44). ¿Cómo son las ofrendas que damos, de lo que nos sobra o de lo que nos duele dar? Recordemos que ahora tenemos el papel de discípulos misioneros de Jesucristo y se espera que la compasión y la misericordia brote del corazón que ama al Señor.

A PRAYER FOR VETERANS

Heavenly Father, King and Lord, You instill in all of Your creation an order and value.

You call Your children “very good.”
We surrender to You
the conflicts that tear your family apart.

We pray for an end to blindness that places pride, greed, power, and selfishness above human dignity and brotherly love.

We pray in gratitude
for all of those who have defended peace, virtue, and justice with honor.

We pray especially for those who have suffered in mind and body
from the ravages of war.

Let Your Kingdom come!

May Your peace that surpasses all understanding

reign in our hearts and in our world.
Amen.
