33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 18, 2018

As we edge closer to the closing of the liturgical year, the Church selects readings that remind us of the final close: the second coming of Christ. It's easy, perhaps, to forget that this is a dogma of our Catholic faith. We see this dramatic end times language in today's Gospel. "The sun will be darkened ... and the stars will be falling from the sky." As Christians and as human beings, we know all things will come to an end. "But of that day or hour, no one knows." The "end of the world" and end of time at Jesus' coming is in a future unknown. But God has given us beautiful reminders of this truth. We see the signs and symbols of ending all around us — nightfall at the end of each day; the life cycle of crops coming alive, bearing fruit, and being harvested; our own death. That, too, will come at an unknown day and hour. But that is the way of things. Even as God created in Genesis, He gave us a sense of time — the sun rising and setting, a beginning and an end — to mark our days. So how do we welcome these built-in forms of measurement? Do we take time to quietly recollect at the end of each day? Do we see every morning as a fresh start for mercies new? Do we observe the seasons and reflect on what they might be speaking to us of God and His glory? "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my works will not pass away." The little beginnings and little ends are opportunities to renew our faith in Jesus, if only we have the eyes to see!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." None of us knows when the world will end. All we know is that it will end. All things do. Many people choose to live a somewhat carefree life by living as if life will never end. They go from one day to the next, never giving a thought to the fact that today may be their last. If you knew exactly when your life will end, what would you do differently? As Christians, we are called to be people of beginnings and endings. God is in all of life even when we think that life cannot get any worse than it is. Creating life out of death is what God does best. We are asked to live vigilantly, seeing God in all things and being ever prepared to meet him, whenever that time comes.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

“En cuanto a ese día y a la hora, nadie los conoce, ni los ángeles del cielo, ni el Hijo, nadie sino el Padre.” Nadie sabe cuándo se terminará el mundo. Lo único que sabes es que sí se terminará. Todas las cosas tienen un fin. Muchas personas deciden vivir una vida sin preocupaciones, como si la vida nunca llegará a un fin. Pasan de un día a otro, sin pensar que quizás ese día será su último. Si usted supiera exactamente cuándo terminará su vida, ¿qué haría diferente? Como cristianos, estamos llamados a ser personas de principios y fines. Dios está dentro de todo en la vida, también cuando pensemos que la vida no podría empeorar más. Crear vida de la muerte es lo que Dios hace mejor. Dios nos pide que vivamos atentamente, viendo a Dios en todas las cosas y estar preparados a conocerlo, sea cuando sea el tiempo.

XXXIII Domingo Ordinario

18 de Noviembre de 2018

Este domingo el Evangelio nos habla de la Venida del Hijo del Hombre. Pensar en la venida del Reino puede causar temor y angustia. ¡Es todo lo contrario! Esto debe ser un mensaje lleno de esperanza. Si, el mundo llegará a su fin algún día, pero por lo pronto, el deber de los cristianos es de trabajar para que sea un lugar donde haya paz y el amor. El Señor Jesús lo dice claro, sin fantasías ni promesas falsas: “Por lo que se refiere a ese Día y cuándo vendrá, no lo sabe nadie, ni los ángeles en el Cielo, ni el Hijo, sino solamente el Padre” (Marcos 13:32). Entonces, ¿qué debemos hacer? ¿Cómo comprender la Venida del Hijo del Hombre? Bueno, está muy de moda en estos tiempos la palabra discernir. Por ejemplo, hay que discernir los signos de los tiempos, hay discernir el sistema en que vivimos, y hay que aprender a hacerlo con honestidad. Esto implica estar atentos a saber elegir buenos caminos. Jesús nos pone como ejemplo la higuera, nos dice que por sus ramas tiernas y el brote de sus hojas se sabe que ya se acerca el verano. Lo que se nos quiere decir es que sepamos desear poco y ocupar poco. Dando siempre fruto, dejando nuestros anhelos y sueños en manos del Señor. El reto es vivir en la tierra, pensando en el futuro que es el Cielo. “El cielo y la tierra pasarán, pero mis palabras no pasarán” (Marcos 13:31). ¡Señor, ayúdanos a comprender la inmensidad y el misterio de tu Palabra, para que sepamos vivir en esperanza a pesar de las adversidades!

A THANKSGIVING PRAYER

Good and gracious God,
You do all things well.
You make the sun and rain come,
nurturing the earth, making it fertile and fruitful.
Through Your gift of creation and the work of our hands,
we reap an abundant harvest.
We give You thanks for Your many gifts that sustain us;
for health and home, dignified labor,
for family, friends, neighbors,
and those whom — today — we may still consider enemies.
As we reflect in thanks this day,
may we remember those who lack something we have.
May our gratitude move us to love,
serve, and give.
Together we rejoice in Your gifts,
and in Your abundant life!
Amen.
